

Relationship “Cooking Lessons”

Could you use a little wave of a Good Faerie’s magic wand on the multi-layered cake that is your relationship knowledge? Whether in a relationship or not, a working understanding of the recipe is vital to creating a scrumptiously light moist cake. Does it sometimes feel like you might be measuring flour in odd size cups and “folding” eggs into the batter shells and all?

Have you been tempted to put the icing and candles on before you have even baked the cake? Relationships are the desert of life and just as tantalizing to create once you access the real magic contained in the wand.

Join us at Unity of Fayetteville for practical and successful relationship “cooking lessons,” they may be quite different from what you might expect!

Facilitators:

Jakki and Rick Blough

Saturdays January 27 & February 3 from 1-4 pm

At Unity of Fayetteville, 4880 W Wedington Dr
442-0680